

The vote on the deregulation process is occurring as non-democratic. It is the job of the fcc to protect the public's interest, not the interests of corporate media. Hold public discussion and postpone the vote scheduled for June 2.